

Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict (JILPAC)

Call for Papers (2022)

“Humanity in International Armed Conflicts”

A special issue in remembrance of Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Knut Ipsen

The editorial board

invites authors to submit papers to be published in the 2nd issue of 2022

The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict / Humanitäres Völkerrecht (JILPAC / HuV) specialises in the legal analysis surrounding armed conflicts. The JILPAC focuses on the contemporary challenges of international humanitarian law and related fields, including international human rights law and international criminal law as well as on practical challenges of humanitarian aid and peace missions. The JILPAC publishes papers, commentaries, case notes, book reviews, and conference reports on current events and future developments of the law and of humanitarian action in both English and German.

Against the backdrop of the Russian war of aggression against Ukraine, we particularly invite submissions of articles focusing on the following topics:

- The erosion of the jus contra bellum and the right to self-defense;
- International humanitarian law and large-scale armed conflicts of the 21st century;
- Conflict parties and neutrality in peer-to-peer conflicts;
- The status of prisoners of war;
- Anonymous and the Foreign Legion for the Territorial Defense of Ukraine: A diversification of actors in armed conflicts?
- Sanctions and the roles and obligations of businesses
- Humanitarian corridors and access of humanitarian actors

Articles focusing on other topics are equally welcome. Contributions can be submitted in English or German. We further welcome conference reports, book reviews (upon request), and case notes. Instructions for contributors can be found on the website of the IFHV as well as on the website of the Berliner Wissenschafts-Verlag.

The deadline for submissions is the 15 July 2022.

All articles are subject to a double-blind peer-review process by the editorial and advisory board.
