

International Adjudication – Peace Through Law in our Times

A colloquium to commemorate the 150th birthday of Walther Schücking

Friday, May 9

11:30–12:30	Lunch at own expenses (35.00 €)
12:00–12:30	Registration
12:30–13:30	Welcome and opening remarks (Nele Matz-Lück) Greetings by the Dean of the Law Faculty (Ino Augsberg) Talk/Dialogue: Walther Schücking's Legacy (Andreas von Arnould)
13:30–15:30	Panel 1: The Role of International Courts in Times of Armed Conflict Presentation: Contemporary Armed Conflicts before International Courts (Gleider Hernández) Spotlight: Russia before International Courts (Frédéric Mégret) Spotlight: Provisional Measures in the Context of Israel's Activities Concerning Gaza (Nasim Zargarinejad) Discussion
15:30–16:00	Coffee Break
16:00–18:00	Panel 2: Protecting the Global Commons: Climate Change and International Adjudication Presentation: The Role of Courts and Tribunals in Protecting the Global Climate (Margaretha Wewerinke-Singh) Spotlight: The Advisory Function of Courts and Tribunals in the Context of Climate Change (Benoît Mayer) Spotlight: Human Rights Litigation in a Warming World: Current Challenges and Future Prospects (Verena Kahl) Discussion

Saturday, May 10

09:00–10:00	Keynote speech: Peace through Law - and by Courts today (Georg Nolte)
10:00–10:30	Coffee Break
10:30–12:30	Panel 3: Defining the Limits of International Adjudication Presentation: International Adjudication at its Limits? (Mamadou Hébié) Spotlight: Strategic Litigation Claims before International Courts (Yusra Suedi) Spotlight: International Adjudication in the Post-Fragmentation Discussion (Seline Trevisanut) Discussion
12:30–13:00	Closing thoughts (Christian Tams)
13:00–13:30	Farewell (Thomas Kleinlein)
13:30–14:30	Lunch at own expenses (35.00 €)

REGISTRATION:

May 9–10, 2025

Venue: Hotel Maritim
Bismarckallee 2, 24105 Kiel

With kind support of

